The Kannada Language Learning Act, 2015, made it compulsory for schools in the state, irrespective of the board they are affiliated to, to teach Kannada in CBSE and ICSE schools as a second language. The law made it mandatory for schools in Karnataka to teach Kannada as a compulsory language from the academic session of 2017-18 from Class I. As per this order, children until Class V of this academic session (2021-22) learn Kannada as a compulsory language.
